NASHVILLE'S NONPROFIT FILM CENTER

2020 Rental Rates and Policies

Thank you for your interest in the Belcourt Theatre. Because the Belcourt screens films 365 days a year, our rental availabilities have unique parameters.

To maintain a cohesive screening schedule for films, all Belcourt rentals are structured in blocks of full hours that begin and end on the half-hour—i.e. a three-hour rental from 6:30pm-9:30pm.

Please note that the Belcourt does not offer rentals on Fridays, Saturdays or Sundays due to film schedules.

All evening rentals have three possible time slots:

1. 4:30 - 6:30pm: sample rental period for an event or screening that starts at 5:00pm/5:30pm, depending on duration of event.
 2. 6:30 - 9:30pm: sample rental period for an event or screening that starts at 7:00pm/7:30pm depending on duration of event.
 3. 9:30 - Midnight: sample rental period for an event or screening with a slightly later start (10:00pm/10:30pm) and minimal setup.

All hours in the theatre are “hours rented.” A rental timeframe must include load-in, set-up time, doors/seating time (30 minutes for a film; 60 minutes for a concert), total running time, strike and load-out. For example, a 6:30pm-9:30pm rental means you will arrive at 6:30 to set up (including any audio/video test). You will base your doors time and start time accordingly. At 9:30pm sharp, any lingering crowds have left the theatre, and your gear is fully removed from the building.

NOTE: Please carefully consider set-up and breakdown time especially if you are interested in the two-hour (4:30 - 6:30pm) timeframe. Additional time may be rented at the hourly rate, but requires advanced approval from our Programming Director and is based on availability.

PUBLICITY FOR TICKETED RENTAL EVENTS

- Web page for your event on the Belcourt's website, www.belcourt.org. Web page includes space for image as well as text/links. Renter is responsible for providing text, web image (850px x 505px - jpeg), and URLs for links (no PDFs please). NOTE: Due to space considerations, most events cannot be listed more than 6 weeks in advance.
- Advance ticket sales are available through the Belcourt's website. Tickets can be put on sale 6 weeks in advance of the event. No tickets will be put on sale until all ticketing documents are completed and submitted (see ticketing section for details).
- Event listing on Belcourt's weekly media advisory (sent on Mondays) — listing will be included on advisories commencing once the event's tickets are on sale.
- Event listing on Belcourt's Thursday e-newsletter, covering the upcoming Friday-Thursday period — listing will be included on the e-newsletter sent the week prior to the event.
- Please note that the Belcourt Theatre's social media is used solely for Belcourt programming and Belcourt events. The Belcourt does not "accept" co-host requests for Facebook events associated with rental events.
- Please note that marketing and publicity materials cannot be displayed or distributed at the Belcourt (unless prior arrangements have been made with the Operations Director for materials during the actual event).

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR ALL MARKETING AND PUBLICITY MATERIALS:

- The Belcourt's logo may not be used on any print or digital material produced for your event, nor may the Belcourt be referenced or suggested as a "presenter," "co-presenter," "host," or "co-host" of the event (including co-hosting Facebook page events).
- References to the Belcourt shall be for location purposes only. Please note the Belcourt Theatre uses the spelling of theatre with the "re" at the end.
- All marketing and publicity materials referencing the Belcourt must be approved in advance by the Operations Director.

TICKETING

All tickets for events at the Belcourt must be sold exclusively through www.belcourt.org. All events go on sale on Fridays at 10am, and at least one week's notice is required before putting an event on sale. With the signed contract, the Belcourt will issue a ticketing document for the renter to fill out, as well as a copy of the Belcourt's ticket fee chart. Note: Ticket fees are charged to the consumer, not the renter. These fees are well below market average in comparison to large ticketing companies such as Ticketmaster.

INSURANCE

All renters must carry liability insurance which names the Belcourt Theatre as co-insured at $1,000,000 per occurrence and fire damage liability insurance of at least $100,000. The Belcourt's Operations Director can provide contact information for local insurance agents who specialize in event liability insurance.

MERCHANDISE

Merchandise may be sold, and the Belcourt will provide one 8-ft table with tablecloth for this purpose. In exchange, the renter must provide a sales report at the end of the night as well as 15% of the proceeds to the Belcourt (either in cash or as a deduction from the final settlement). Note: Nothing may be hung on walls, and no Belcourt artwork or wall hangings will be removed, moved or obstructed from view while a merchandise/info table is set up.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE BELCOURT PARKING LOT

The Belcourt's lot has 54 spaces (not including covered spaces which are generally occupied by Belcourt staff). Because it's the primary lot for Belcourt visitors and a public pay lot, spaces are regularly in use. On occasion, the Belcourt will authorize closure of part or all of the parking lot as events require at the prices posted. If you need to park a bus, trailer or other large vehicle in the lot during your rental, please note the space costs—they are per parking place and will be added to the cost of your rental. We will hold a space by the loading door for a van or truck bringing equipment for use during a rental event. Note that if you choose to, and the Belcourt agrees, you can close the full lot; in this case, you must also provide security to direct traffic and control lot entrances.

CONCERT RENTALS

The Belcourt strictly enforces a 95db limit in the house.
